

SWALEDALE SQUEEZE

18 - 20 May 2018

It's Swaledale time again! This year's Swaledale Squeeze promises to be as good as ever - a convivial weekend of concertina playing, meeting friends, a concert, a ceilidh, sessions, Black Sheep bitter, walks, the comfort of Grinton Lodge and fantastic scenery - what more could one want? As usual, everything will be centred on Grinton Lodge (a former shooting lodge), now a Youth Hostel, based just outside Reeth, in the picturesque setting of Swaledale in the Yorkshire Dales. The venue is excellent for our purposes and we are made to feel very welcome. All accommodation is in bunk rooms (bedding provided) and meals are included for those in bunks (with or without the Friday evening meal which will be served at 7.00 pm). Campervans and tents are also welcome but, because the dining room is relatively small, campers are asked to use the self-catering kitchen. There are also many B&Bs in the area if you would like more comfort/privacy. You are welcome to bring your own alcohol to the ceilidh but not to consume at Grinton Lodge.

Friday consists of an optional walk in the afternoon, a meal at 7.00 pm and informal sessions in the evening (including the 'Dotty Session' - using dots!) - a chance to unwind after your journey, play a few tunes and meet friends old and new. We will also put on a couple of kegs of Black Sheep! There will be workshops on Saturday and Sunday, a mini-concert on Saturday, a ceilidh on the Saturday evening, featuring 'spots' from participants, and a farewell concert on Sunday afternoon, including tutors' 'spots'. The ceilidh & concert will be held at Reeth.. Families & friends are welcome too - they may enjoy the area's many craft shops, tearooms and outstanding walks and are welcome to bring other musical instruments for joining in sessions or the ceilidh band.

The guest tutors for this year's Squeeze are John Spiers (Anglo), Michael Jary (English) and Iris Bishop (Duet). Our regular tutors are Alex Wade (English), Harry Scurfield (Anglo), Paul Walker (English/Anglo), Carolyn Wade (Band) and Dave Ball (Band/English). Together they provide workshops covering a whole range of concertina playing for different abilities, systems and styles.
